SENATE CONVENES

UNIQUE PROGRAM DELIGHTS TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB —MOCK SENATE PRESENT

A large number of Glendale women witnessed an unusual sight Tuesday, March 13, when they gathered at Masonic Temple which was gaily decorated with callendulas for the occasion, the regular meeting of the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club, in charge of the parliamentary law section. All were on the qui vive as the president, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, turned the meeting over to Mrs. Helen Campbell, curator of parliamentary usage, who, as previously announced, stated that the club was to be honored by the presence of many distinguished United States senators who would portray a session of the senate. Mrs. Campbell introduced the speaker of the house, Mrs. W. E. Evans, who, as Vice President Marshall, was wonderfully garbed, with hirsute adornment, silk plug hat and frock coat. With clever remarks Vice President Marshall took his seat as presiding officer of the senate. Senators announced in order of their appearance, and likewise dressed in their regalia of state, each cleverly imi'ating the characteristic appearance and mannerisms of the senators they represented, were William A. Borah of Idaho, Mrs. Henry Greenwalt; Albert D. Cummins of Iowa, Mrs. A. L. Weaver; J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, Mrs. A. M. Hunt; Ollie James of Kentucky, Mrs. Ella W. Richardson; John D. Works of California, Mrs. C. E. Harlan; Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Mrs. John Robert White; James D. Phelan of California, Mrs. H. Lee Clotworthy; James A. O'Gorman of New York, Mrs. F. L. Church. The costuming of the senators disguised many beyond recognition, so fearfully and wonderfully made up were the ladies with Van Dykes, mustaches, gray hair, silk hats and frock coats, to say nothing of eye glasses, kid gloves and canes.

The subject of the senate session centered about the important national questions of "entangling alliances" and "the Monroe doctrine," and was a marvel of correct parliamentary usage in the work of the presiding officer, the introduction of a resolution, a motion to commit, amendments, debate, the previous question, a tie vote decided by the chair, and a motion to fix the time to which to adjourn. This is the first program the parliamentary usage section has ever presented before the Tuesday Afternoon club, and that it will not be the last was evidenced by the many requests for the repetition of the program of this week. Credit for the splendid success of the program is due to the efficient curator of the section, Mrs. Helen Campbell, and to Mrs. W. E. Evans, parliamentarian of the club, who originated the idea and wrote the copy for the entire program.

Mrs. P. S McNutt, district parliamentarian, was present and after expressing her delight at the ability of her child, the parliamentary section, of which she was first curator, conducted an interesting drill in valuable motions to use at the coming district convention.

Mrs. Clifford H. Cunningham, chairman of music of the Lyric club, was the soloist of the afternoon, and delighted her audience with two beautifully rendered solos, "Sunlight" by Harriet Ware and "Goodday, Marie," by Pessard. Mrs. Cunningham was ably accompanied by Miss Salisbury at the piano. Both artists were the recipients of beautiful floral tributes.

During the business session by a unanimous vote the amendment to the bylaws by which the annual membership dues were raised was passed, and with only a very few dissenting votes the admission fee was increased, this as a stepping stone to the larger work facing the club in a coveted new club home. Delegates to the coming district convention were announced as follows: Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, president; Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, Mrs H. Lee Clotworthy and Mrs. Helen I. Campbell. Alternates are: Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker as the president's alternate; Mrs. A. L. Weaver, Mrs. J. Glenwood Jones and Mrs. C. M. Turck.

CONTRACT AWARDED

The contract for erecting a new garage on the northwest corner of Colorado street and Brand boulevard was let yesterday to E. K. Daniels, and Mr. Daniels has sub-let the brick work to H. E. Betz. This lot and new building will be the property of R. L. Phister of Casa Verdugo, and the occupants of the building when completed will be Messrs. Packer & Roman, who are the Glendale agents for the Studebaker cars.

GLENDALE GUN CLUB

RIFLE AND REVOLVER CLUB ORGANIZES WITH OVER FIFTY MEMBERS

The Rifle and Revolver Shooting club, which was started only a week ago by Walter E. Palmer, the secretary and promoter of the Seven Hills, held their first meeting in the Council Chambers of the City Hall last night and elected the officers for the new club.

Some of Glendale's most prominent citizens turned out to help boost the new club. Hon. Judge H. Miller, of 409 S. Brand Blvd., was appointed chairman of the meeting and was also elected president of the club. The Occidental college, where there are some three hundred students, was represented and Prof. S. Bell was elected vice president. Chief of Police of Glendale, George H. Herald, was elected secretary.

W. E. Palmer was elected treasurer and executive officer and also recommended and authorized by the club for organizer and booster for the club, which gives promise to be one of the most enthusiastic shooting clubs on the coast.

Judge Miller, the president, has tendered the use of his court room for an open meeting to be held next Tuesday, March 20th, at 8 p. m. for making arrangements for the range and other business pertaining to the new club. All interested may join at this meeting, which will invite Eagle Rock City, Burbank, Tropico and Hollywood.

Palmer, a resident of Los Angeles for the past ten years, formerly came from Wyoming and has been in the shooting game for many years. He says: "Gymnasiums for runners, gun clubs for gunners." The man who is taught to shoot behind the gun may prove more important than the man who learns to run. Join the Glendale Rifle Club, it won't cost you much, and have some fun. Already more than fifty have been signed up for membership.

MARRIED SIXTY YEARS

Tomorrow, March 15, 1917, will be a happy day for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bock of 1521 Vine street for on that day they will celebrate the completion of sixty years of happy married life. Mr. and Mrs. Bock were married in Springfield, Ill., March 15, 1857. The bride is 76 years old and her husband is eighty-eight years and 3 months. They are parents of seven children, five married daughters reside in Los Angeles and a son and daughter are in the east. There are eleven grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Bock came to Glendale about ten years ago.

Mr. Bock joined the Second Nebraska Cavalry, Co. K, at the breaking out of the war and served the union well. He is proud of the little bronze button he wears in his coat lapel, and is a member of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R. His comrades in the Post have been invited to assist in the celebration of this importtant anniversary and many of them will call to pay their respects to the bride and groom of sixty years tomorrow. The daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bock will also assist them in making memorable the day.

BRITISH AMBULANCE SOCIETY

The Glendale Branch of the British Ambulance Society held their regular meeting Monday afternoon at their new headquarters on Broadway near Glendale avenue. There was a very good attendance and all members were pleased with the new location. This is the second meeting held here, the first being held on inauguration day. The room was quite empty, but two fine, long tables have been given and a number of chairs were donated, also a set of shelves and a cupboard. A sewing machine was purchased this week from the funds and everything is now in good running order. Each member has been asked to bring her own cup and saucer and tea will be served to the busy workers every week.

Mrs. Frank England was the hostess for the afternoon and there were a good many visitors. Everyone is cordially invited to visit the society any Monday, if only to stay an hour or so and assist in making bandages or do some knitting or cutting out and making shirts and other hospital necessities.

The officers of this society are Mrs. Georgina Walters, 309 N. Louise St., president; Mrs. R. E. Whitaker, 1460 Colorado St., secretary; Miss Ina Whitaker, 208 W. Ninth St., treasurer. Phone Glen. 586-J.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Thursday. Heavy frost Thursday morning. Westerly winds.

Culberson of Kansas, David J. Lewis of Maryland, E. P. Costigan of Denver, Daniel Roper, formerly of the Postoffice department, of North Carolina.

WILL ASK FOR PREPAREDNESS

PRESIDENT WILL CALL ON NEXT CONGRESS TO CONSIDER PROMOTION OF DEFENSE MEASURES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 14.—President Wilson's message to the next Congress will urge the immediate consideration of the promotion of active defense measures such as have not been called for since the Spanish-American war. It is believed this will include legislation governing all matters in connection with the defense of our merchant marine; suggested action toward universal service; army and navy appropriations and the release of mineral and oil resources.

SINK AMERICAN VESSEL

ALGONQUIN CARRYING FOODSTUFFS TO LONDON IS VICTIM OF GERMAN SUBMARINE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, March 14.—The American consul reports that the American steamship, the Algonquin, was submarined without warning. The crew of twenty-seven escaped without injury. The vessel was unarmed and carried foodstuffs for London. The submarine opened fire at a range of three miles and fired twenty shells.

RAIDER DESTROYS JAPANESE SHIP

TOKIO WARNS ALL SHIPPING OF PRESENCE OF GERMAN DESTROYER IN INDIAN OCEAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

TOKIO, March 14.—All ships have been warned of the presence of a German raider in the Indian Ocean. It is reported that the raider destroyed a Japanese steamer.

RUSSIANS CAPTURE KERMANSHA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, March 14.—Russian forces this afternoon captured the city of Kermansha, Persia, from the Turks.

VOTE DOWN BOXING BILL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SACRAMENTO, March 14.—The Senate to-day voted down the bill providing for the regulation of 4-round boxing bouts as they now exist in California. It is believed this will mean the defeat of the proposed Constitutional amendment legalizing 10-round bouts.

GLENDALE WILL SHOW SPIRIT OF HOSPITALITY

C. E. CONVENTION WILL GIVE US OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW OUR HOSPITABLE SPIRIT—MORE PLACES OF ENTERTAINMENT NEEDED

Next Friday, Saturday and Sunday Glendale is to have an opportunity to show to some thirty-five hundred visitors her spirit of hospitality.

The coming convention will be beyond a doubt the largest Los Angeles County Christian Endeavor Convention ever held.

Practically every detail has been cared for except providing enough places of entertainment for our guests and we ask that all who possibly can, will open up their homes to one or more of the delegates at this time and assure the Endeavorers we are glad to have the privilege of having their convention held in our city.

Notify any of the following if you can entertain some delegates.

Mrs. Homer B. Miller, 1462 1534 Burchett.
Miss Laura Donnell, Garv. 1178 326 Rowland Ave., Eagle Rock.
Miss Bessie Field, Glend. 415 W 239 S. Kenwood
Miss Phoebe Snell, Glend. 809 W 116 East Eulalia, Tropico.
Miss Jessie Marple, 224 N. Brand, Tropico.
Miss Ethel Preston, Glend. 721 W 1414 Sycamore.
Miss Lita McCoy, Glend. 37 J 127 E. Third Street.
Miss Ella Mosher, Glend. 1397 J 319 S. Central.

SIXTEEN STUDEBAKER CARS

Messrs. Packer & Roman, the new Studebaker dealers in Glendale, gave a very creditable showing of cars on the streets Tuesday. Friends of these gentlemen very kindly volunteered to drive extra cars, so there were in line sixteen Studebaker automobiles, including four and six cylinder touring cars, a large truck and several roadsters. The Los Angeles distributing agent for the Studebaker was present, accompanied by a photographer and at the conclusion of the parade the cars were placed in position along the curb on Broadway between Louise street and Maryland avenue and a picture taken of the cars and the drivers. This part of the program being over, the cars for the present were placed in the garage and warehouse at the corner of Third street and Maryland avenue, and Messrs. Packer & Roman will use this as their salesroom until their new garage is completed at the corner of Brand boulevard and Colorado street about May 1.

NEW WAY OF WORSHIP

One of the new ways of worshipping the Lord in a local community church is to season the song service with extracts that may be gotten from advertisements in the front part and back part of the song book. Advertising is becoming so much sought for that ere long the casket at the funeral services will be placarded with advertisements solicited by some one who will threaten to boycott the merchants who do not come across with an advertisement for the occasion. The merchant has become an easy mark for the fellow who wishes to pick up a little extra change by charging a good round price for placing advertisements in a hundred copies of a song book.

CONCERT BIG SUCCESS

The pre-convention concert given by the Los Angeles County Christian Endeavor chorus under the direction of Prof. John Bissell Trowbridge at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening was a big success, a large crowd enjoying the splendid program given, which was published in full in Monday's issue of the News. Every number on the program was a good one and the program as a whole, a musical treat that every one present thoroughly enjoyed.

BLUE LODGE INITIATES

The candidates were initiated into the mysteries of Masonry at a meeting of the Blue Lodge at Masonic Temple, Tuesday evening. The meeting for next Tuesday evening will be special in character. Third degree work will be put on at this meeting instead of a week later.

HORSE SHOE CLUB NOTES

The Pasadena club with ten men will play a match of 50 games with the Glendale club on the Glendale grounds next Saturday, March 17. Everybody welcome. No reserved seats.

We hope to announce in the near future the forming of a Southern California Horse Shoe league composed of the following cities: Pasadena, Pomona, Long Beach and Glendale, to play match games on the first and third Saturdays of each month. If the league is formed there will be a game on the first Saturday in each month of the league season on the home grounds and they should be good ones and interesting as the clubs are strong ones.

LUNCHEON PARTY

Mrs. Henry O. Melone of 224 Orange street entertained last Saturday with a luncheon party.

Decorating for the affair was done with pink carnations and the pink color effect was used in serving luncheon.

Those present were Mesdames R. A. Mays, L. Pometti, W. T. Lichty, Wm. Kellar, L. R. Kirkpatrick, G. Murphy, the Misses Virginia Mays and Hazel Foster, all of Los Angeles, and Mrs. J. B. Doner, Mrs. J. D. Cole and Miss Lydia Meyers of Glendale.

A SURPRISE SHOWER ON BRIDE-ELECT

A very delightful evening was spent last Thursday when a surprise miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Marie Kane and Brownie Blackstock in honor of their sister and chum, Miss Helen Kane, who is a popular bride-elect of Highland Park and will be a little May-Day bride. The groom-elect is Mr. Frank McGowan of Huntington Park.

Their home, 5924 Monte Vista street, was beautifully decorated in old rose and white with many pink carnations and fern. The bride-elect was very much surprised when she came home to find all of her many friends ready to congratulate and present her with many pretty and useful gifts. The evening was spent pleasantly with games and music. Dainty refreshments were served. Among those to greet the bride-elect were: Misses Louise Deacon, Elsa Johnson, Gertrude Davis, O'Connor, Anderson, Harrison, Marie Kane, Brownie Blackstock, Mrs. Hazel Ward, Mrs. Vergie Clay, Mrs. A. Clark, Mrs. Marie Parker, Mrs. Helen Trusty, Mrs. Ethel Huskey.

"Advertising does not jerk—it pulls. It begins very gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day and year by year until it exerts an irresistible power."—John Wanamaker.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 1917.

SLASH PINE LITTLE KNOWN

A comparatively little known but valuable tree most often called slash pine is fast replacing longleaf pine in many sections of the south, says the Forest Service. In some respects this tree is considered a better tree than longleaf. Its growth, according to the foresters, is more rapid and its yield of turpentine larger, while the wood is said to be the heaviest, hardest, and strongest coniferous wood grown in the country.

The term, "slash pine," it is explained, is popularly applied to several southern pines, notably the loblolly, with which the true slash pine is often confused because of its close resemblance. The slash pine is also sometimes called "Cuban," "swamp," or "she" pine.

The chief causes for the rapid spread of the tree are its frequent and abundant seed production, very rapid growth, ability to endure the shade of other trees, and its capacity to adapt itself to a wide range of environment. The fact that it can withstand the combination of forest fires and razor-back hogs is also considered of importance by the foresters, who say that the tree is destined to play an important part in the future of the cut-over lands of the South. As an example of the high money returns obtained by turpentining the tree, it is stated that in one instance in South Carolina a twenty-year-old stand of slash pine averaged 520 trees per acre, each of which had one cup. The turpentine operator paid the owner ten cents a cup, or a total of $52 per acre, for the privilege of tapping the trees.

After a rest of from three to five years the trees should be in good condition for back-cupping and should produce even larger financial returns. By using the improved methods of turpentining advocated by the Forest Service, the foresters say that such a stand could be turpentined for a longer period of years instead of the three or four years under the crude methods now generally employed.

It is pointed out that the yellow pine lands of the South furnish by far the bulk of the naval stores of the world and that the supply is steadily decreasing as these lands are denuded of their timber and no provision made for their restocking. Because such high returns are possible from slash pine, the experts believe that the tree should be encouraged to come in on the cut-over land of the South with a view to perpetuating the naval stores industry.

LOSS OF LIVESTOCK

Notwithstanding efforts on the part of the Forest Service and stockowners to reduce the loss of livestock on the National Forest range in California, a recorded loss of almost 7,000 head of cattle and sheep was reported during 1916, according to a statement given out by District Forester DuBois.

It is estimated that this reported loss was not more than one-third the actual loss, and indicates, it is said, the necessity of closer co-operation of stockmen and Government Bureau in obtaining more accurate figures. Analysis of the reports show that 1,246 head of stock died from disease, 1,552 from poisonous plants, 2,249 from predatory animals, 380 from accident, and 1,465 from miscellaneous and unknown causes.

The number of head of stock grazed on the National Forests in California in 1916 was 417,045 sheep and goats and 194,892 head of cattle and horses.

The diseases responsible for forty-two per cent. of the cattle loss are blackleg, anthrax, and abortion. Blackleg, it is said, can be prevented if stockmen will practice systematic vaccination on all young stock each year in communities where the disease is known to be prevalent.

An experiment on the Inyo National Forest during the past season showed the value of the serum-vaccine treatment for anthrax. One thousand fifty cattle were treated out of a herd of 2,000. After the period of incubation, 5 days, only three head of the treated cattle died, while 25 head of the untreated stock were lost before being removed from the allotment. The serum-vaccine treatment for anthrax can be obtained from commercial laboratories such as the Cutter Laboratory in Berkeley.

THE CALIFORNIA TAX SYSTEM

The first annual report of the State Tax Commission is a most interesting report on the subject of taxation in California.

The commission finds that the State tax system is a failure, as it fixes an inflexible rate for the corporations to pay, under which, if the revenue is not sufficient for its needs, "financial harm to the State would result."

"It has not resulted in equality, either between the corporations or the people. It has complicated the tax system. It is a weak argument for any system of taxation merely to say that it raises enough revenue."

The commission recommends assessment of property at full 100 per cent. value, with actual consideration required to be given in deeds of sale of real property.

The commission says a tax should not be such to induce people to hold valuable property out of use or cease operation of a business or industry on account of high taxes.

The full one hundred per cent. value assessment theory has only worked to increase taxes wherever tried, as it sets up a larger target for making millage levies against property.

The commission recommends future increases in assessed land values either by a proportional or graduated tax after Monday, March, 1918, to be levied in the power of the legislature.

The proceeds of this increased tax shall go into a reserve fund to buy lands, make reclamation improvements, establish rural credits or provide transportation systems, etc.

The commission recommends $500 exemption to all land-owners, and exemption of all personal property, including motor vehicles, etc., or what they term a "reactionary income tax."

The report strongly advocates favoring improvements and taxing the unoccupied lands, and getting after persons "who now contribute nothing toward the support of the State government."

THE NEW IDEA OF CONSERVATISM

Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, recently addressed a letter to the chairman of the senate committee on public lands which is well worth quoting here: In view of the general realization that it is time to make plans for national defense, I take the liberty of suggesting that you consult with the chairman of the committee on military and naval affairs to see if it is not practicable to have the lands which are at present locked up, containing oil, phosphate and potash, released under a leasing system. We have some 6,000,000 acres of possible oil lands so withdrawn that no wells can be bored upon them. Only the lands now held in private ownership are producing. We should be about the business of discovering what these withdrawn lands contain. Gasoline is invaluable to the army and to the navy, as well as to every automobile owner and to the owner of every other gasoline-driven engine in the country. The largest deposit of potash in this country, which is fundamental in the manufacture of explosives, is also out of use because withdrawn, and we have some 3,000,000 acres of phosphate deposit in the same situation. The development of these resources can be made effective by the passage of a leasing bill.

The old idea of conservatism, says the Helena Independent, was to lock up all unused natural resources and sit before the door with a shotgun. The new idea, which Secretary Lane has put into practice whenever congress would give him a chance to do so, is to permit the use of all natural resources in such manner as to prevent waste and to get full value for the public. In times like these, the quicker the new way is adopted throughout, the better.

CHARGE FULL RENT FOR CARS

In the opinion of W. R. Scott, General Manager of the Southern Pacific Railroad, as expressed to the Railway-Age Gazette, the chief causes of car shortage are loss of time in loading and unloading and neglect to load cars to full capacity.

The worst trouble is the fact that railroads permit shippers to use cars as warehouses at merely nominal rent, and in case of export shipments at no rent at all.

This practice could be stopped if the railroads would charge the full rental value of cars, in the form of demurrage, before they begin and after they finish a trip.

If a loaded car takes ten days to make a trip and is then held up by the shipper for a day, 10 per cent. might be added to the freight bill. At the most the free time should be twenty-four hours, for, as Mr. Scott says, a car of coal can be loaded in a few minutes and, as most coal cars have hopper bottoms, they can be unloaded as quickly.

The same statement applies to tank cars, lumber cars and those used for many bulk shipments. When a wagon drives up to a warehouse, it is immediately loaded or unloaded; why not a freight car?

If free time were reduced to the period reasonably necessary and if demurrage were charged at the rate of the full earning power of the car, based on the average day's run, there would be a change.

TROPICO'S HOSPITAL CHANGES HANDS

New Management Announces Plans

TO THE PEOPLE OF GLENDALE:

Appreciating as we do the value of public favor, we are going to ask the people of Glendale who are interested in good things for their town, to favor us with their presence at the opening of our Relax Home and Hospital, which will take place from 2 to 5 p. m. and 7:30 to 10 p. m. in the beautiful building at 525 North San Fernando Boulevard, formerly known as the Mission Hospital.

Thursday, March 15th

We are sparing neither expense nor energy in establishing ourselves in one of the most favorable situations for humane work, i. e., for giving care in a humane way to those who need such care at an institution for the purpose of regaining health and spirits.

We have something unusual to present to people here and at large: A special method of caring for those in need of surgical treatment as well as for those in need of medical attention or just REST. The two departments will be as separate as if a block apart owing to the fortunate architectural construction of the hospital. This we can demonstrate if you will be kind enough to visit us and see how we have made provision for the two ventures.

Every worth-while person has an ambition to do something worth while. Our ambition is to make this institution a pattern for others, besides making a reputation for ourselves. How much easier this will be for us if we can have the good will of our neighbors, cannot be measured. We are simply on probation until we can prove our good intent. We ask you to give us your friendly acquaintance and if we can assure you of our sincerity and worth, the rest naturally follows.

Thanking you in advance for the spirit of good will which we are confident of receiving.

We are most sincerely,

MRS. GRACE M. ROTTNER, Supt.
DR. B. L. BAKER, House Physician.

TO LIVE IN FACT

Life is what we are alive to. It is not a length, but breadth. To be alive only to appetite, pleasure, mere luxury or idleness, pride or money making, and not to goodness and kindness, purity and love, history, poetry and music, flowers, God and eternal hopes, is to be all but dead. —Babcock.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Foss were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Foss, 1460 Salem street.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Peart and family have moved from 1417 Sycamore avenue to 1111 West Seventh street.

E. U. Emery left Monday evening for a short business trip to Bakersfield. He expects to return home in a few days.

Mrs. Chas. Fishel of 4166 West Park avenue is spending a few days visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earl Le Moine, in Culver City.

Mrs. Ada Atkinson has leased her home on Milford street and has taken an apartment in the California apartments on Brand boulevard.

Miss Ruth Byram of 218 Glendale avenue was one of the guests from Glendale attending the wedding of Miss Monica Smith and Courtright Hite in Long Beach Saturday.

Please remember your special invitation to assist in furnishing our kitchen—Ladies' Aid, First M. E. church, Thursday, March 15, at 2:30 to be held in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bryan of Stillwater, Okla., arrived in Glendale Sunday and will visit indefinitely at the home of Mrs. Bryan's sister, Mrs. J. P. Hilbert, of 1519 Vine St.

George Robert and Joseph E. Audet, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Audet of 1539 Vine street, who have been very ill, are recovering and will soon be out among their playmates again.

Frank C. Smedley, who has been ill for some weeks and who returned recently from Hot Springs to his home, 1543 Riverdale drive, is improving, his friends will be glad to learn.

Samuel A. Ayres of 419 Central avenue, Tropico, celebrated his eighty second birthday anniversary Monday, when he was the recipient of many postcards and congratulatory letters.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Casa Verdugo church held an afternoon tea from 2 to 4 Tuesday at the home of Mrs. O. A. Townsend on Stocker street. A very enjoyable social afternoon was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens, who have been guests the past several weeks of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Farlander, of 1454 Riverdale drive, will depart for their home in Boston Thursday, going via the Salt Lake and Rio Grande.

Miss Marian Sais, the Glendale Kalem movie queen, who has been residing on Central avenue, Tropico, has moved into the old Hollenbeck place on Verdugo road and Ninth street, which she is fitting up very comfortably, making an ideal home place.

The Alhambra Advocate reports that Dr. A. L. Merritt, formerly of Wollaston, Mass., has located in Alhambra, having bought in with Dr. F. J. Boody. Dr. Merritt opened offices in Glendale some time ago and resided with his family at 408 Orange street.

The Epworth league of the Tropico M. E. church will give an entertainment at G. A. R. hall Thursday evening entitled "Jerusha Dow's Family Album." About thirty of the members of the league will pose as living pictures in the album and the costumes will be interesting and quaint. Whatever these young folks undertake is generally a success so an enjoyable evening is expected.

Mrs. Eva Blaine, formerly a resident of Tropico, but who has made her home in Los Angeles the past few years, departed Sunday for Detroit, Mich., where she will make her future home. She has many friends in Glendale and Tropico who will regret her departure. Her son. Merrill Blaine, is studying to be a physician in the office with his uncle, Dr. Alex Blaine, a prominent physician and surgeon of Detroit.

Miss Katherine Renshaw entertained a coterie of young friends Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Renshaw, 1462 Lomita avenue. Her brother, William Renshaw, had returned home from Throop college for the week-end, so was one of the happy party. The evening was merrily spent in music and dancing by the following: Misses Marjorie Imler, Esther Schremp, Catherine Phillips and Waunita Emery; Messrs. William Renshaw, Tom Phillips, Eugene Imler, John Sharp, Fred Dodge and William Badham.

Mrs. Charles Sharp entertained a few friends at dinner at her home, 1011 Melrose avenue, Tuesday evening in honor of the birthday anniversaries of Mr. Sharp and her neighbor, Mrs. Allie Nyman, the postmistress at Casa Verdugo. The affair was a surprise to the honorees, which but increased their enjoyment of the appetizing dinner. A lovely birthday cake added the finishing touch to the prettily decorated table. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. G. Peoples, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckles, Mrs. Allie Nyman, Vern Nyman and Mr. and Mrs. Sharp. Music and a good social time completed a happy evening.

TROPICO TRUSTEES

EDWARDS TO BE RETAINED AS GARBAGE COLLECTOR

The trustees of the city of Tropico met in regular session Tuesday night at 7:30. Trustees Peters, Henry, Seal, Vesilich and Alspach present, City Clerk Coleman, City Attorney Shaw, City Engineer Wattles, City Health Officer Mabry and City Marshal Gould were also present.

A communication was received from W. C. Anderson in behalf of the residents in the neighborhood of the Cerritos avenue Grammar school, calling attention to the unsatisfactory and unsanitary condition of the school building at that place, pointing out the fact that the odor arising from the basement windows was very offensive and even to passersby and was very dangerous to the health of the school children. As matters relating to the schools were not under their jurisdiction the communication was referred to the School Board.

City Attorney Shaw presented an ordinance amending certain parts of the building ordinance, placing the erecting of all buildings, especially lattice houses, tent houses and all similar structures under the direct control of the trustees, excepting that such restriction does not apply to the erection of such buildings 75 feet from the nearest street. After considerable discussion as to its proper application as to corner lots, etc., it was decided to have certain changes made and presented at next regular meeting.

City Engineer Wattles reported that Hill street was now completed excepting a certain portion that would have to be rolled after the street had had a chance to settle sufficiently. He also presented a letter from Contractor Shillings, stating that he would complete the rolling of the street when conditions were such as would insure a good job.

City Health Officer reported that he had taken the matter of collecting garbage up with Mr. Edwards and that Mr. Edwards was ready to make another contract for the handling of the garbage. The board authorized Health Officer Mabry to draw up a contract for one year and present it to the board at their next meeting for ratification.

Health Officer Mabry also reported favorably on the application of Douglas Bruce to sell milk in the city of Tropico and on motion of Trustee Henry the permit was granted.

The president of the board reported that, as per instructions, he had purchased the necessary rope and fixtures for the City Hall flag. He also reported that he had had the playgrounds cleared of rubbish and that the excess cost had been met by the public playgrounds committee.

The committee which had been sent to Burbank to investigate the siren fire whistle at that place made the following report.

Trustee Henry reported that the siren was all that it was recommended to be and recommended that the board purchase the same. The other member of the committee, Trustee Peters, reported that the siren was very unsatisfactory to him and he was not in favor of spending $250 for the purchase of said siren, and asked that the committee be retanied to make further investigation.

The board took up the matter of the repair of streets. It seems that there are a great many places that need attention. Some thought it ad-

The following claims were allowed repair outfit, and some thought it advisable to make temporary repairs until the city was able to macadamize the streets. As the streets are now they are a continued source of annoyance. The subject was thoroughly gone over and the board finally decided to employ additional help and repair such spots as were necessary.

The following claims were allowed and ordered paid:

No further business, the board adjourned.

The 1917 Glendale, Tropico, Casa Verdugo directories are ready for delivery at the Evening News office. Riley Lyons of the Lyons' Grocery was the first man to lay down his $2.25 for a directory and a map. Mr. Lyons called for his copy on Tuesday evening.

Tomorrow afternoon the Thursday Afternoon club will give a very interesting Shakespearian program at their meeting in the Tropico city hall. Mrs. Mazie Fullman Garrett of Los Angeles will read "Henry VIII." and Mrs. Chas. Stewart of Tropico will sing a group of Shakespeare's sonnets.

Carnation Rebekah lodge will have an unusually interesting meeting next Tuesday evening, March 20, when the district deputy president. Mrs. Carrie Teale of Los Angeles, will pay her official visit to the lodge. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Ada Madison, past president of the Rebekah assembly, and the district deputy grand marshal, Mrs. Vogel.

POTATO EXPERT EXPLAINS SHORTAGE

Eugene Grubb, an authority of Colorado, is in Southern California, and is going from locality to locality teaching how to grow the tubers properly. The Southern Pacific railroad brought him here for that purpose. Mr. Grubb says that the nation-wide shortage is due to three facts. One is that the crop of 1916 was 100 million bushels short. Another reason is that the shipments to Europe have amounted to over 50 million bushels and the third reason is the workingmen in the east have come to eat potatoes more than ever before. Mr. Grubb is now teaching Los Angeles people how to make back yards grow crops that will keep a family in vegetables.

A USELESS ADVERTISEMENT

An old man, well past sixty, entered the publication offices of the Book and Life and asked to be directed to the lost and found counter. At the proper deparment, he requested the insertion of the following "liner ad.":

LOST—About forty years ago—an opportunity. It is probably worthless now, but I will reward the honest finder who brings it to me, as I am curious to know what it might have done for me had I not been careless with it.

The clerk read the advertisement and then looked pityingly at the old man.

"We'll insert your ad.," he said, "but it is my duty to inform you that there is hardly any use in putting it in. We have no records of any lost opportunities ever having been found."

The old man thought for a few minutes, then he said:

"Well, insert it anyhow. People will read it and start to thinking."

Then he went away.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

TO SEND FLOWERS THROUGH THE MAIL

If the flowers are to be sent to town in the morning cut them during the very late afternoon of the day before and keep them all night in a large pail or pitcher of cold water. Then pack them in the morning in a box with layers of wax paper, and they will travel for hours and remain perfectly fresh. A flower is like a camel—give it a long, deep drink of water and it can go without water for a long time.

Dahlias require a peculiar treatment. When first cut plunge their stems into a vessel of hot water and allow them to remain until the water has cooled off; then put the flowers in cold water for the night, and so treated the dahlias will remain stiff and travel safely.

VEGETABLE ROAST

Take one-half cupful of boiled corn, either canned or cut from the cob; one-half cupful of baked beans, mashed to a pulp; one-half cupful of boiled rice, one-half cupful of strained stewed tomatoes, one-half teaspoonful of minced onion, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, one-quarter cupful of sweet milk and salt and pepper to taste. Mix this together and add enough stale breadcrumbs to make a stiff dough, roll and bake in a greased pan. Serve with tomato sauce.

The man who wants the earth invariably gets it—when he dies.

When a tramp asks for bread, don't give him a stone, set the dog on him.

A PAEAN TO FATHER
By Myra Williams Jarrell

WHO

Who is it rises with the dawn,
And labors hard with brain and brawn
From early light till night has come,
With weary heart and fingers numb?
Why, Father.

Who is it tends the furnace fire,
And heaps the coal and kindling higher,
That Ma can sit in sweet content,
With all her mind on culture bent?
Why,—Father.

Who is it carries out the trash,
Who is it finds the ready cash,
And sews the buttons on his shirt,
While Ma with Maeterlinck does flirt?
Why,—Father.

Who is it sits behind a cage,
And carries home his little wage,
Who goes with trouser legs all frayed,
So Mother can afford a maid?
Why,—Father.

Who is it never gets a laugh,
Whene'er at home he tries to chaff,
Who eats the gizzard of the hen,
Who writes the checks out with his pen?
Why,—Father.

Who is it tries to pay the debts,
While Ma it is, the new clothes gets,
Who is it walks the floor at night,
Who worries till the break o' light?
Why,—Father.

Who is it, when the weather's hot,
And Ma and children leave the spot,
Keeps peggin' on 'mid sweat and heat,
So Ma can have a rest complete?
Why,—Father.

Who is it when the weather's cold,
Must venture out in shoes re-soled,
Who is it wears his last year's coat,
In short, who is the Family Goat?
Why,—Father.

TELLTALE PARROT

They were sitting close together in the parlor.

He—I gave you that parrot as a birthday present, did I not, Matilda?

She—Yes, but surely, Albert, you are not going to speak of your gifts as if—

He—It was young and could not speak at the time?

She—Yes, and it has never been out of this parlor.

He—Then, why—why, when I kissed your photograph in the album while waiting for you did that wretched bird imitate your voice and say: "Don't do that, Charlie; please don't?"

CROSS EYED MENTALLY

Do you ever start to say something and find yourself using the word you hadn't the faintest idea of using? Just a little cross eyed mentally, aren't you? Did you ever mean to jam your foot on the accelerator and slam it down on the brake instead? Have you ever put salt twice on the same plateful of food when one of the applications should have been pepper? Did you ever laugh at the wrong time at the theatre, or sneeze unnecessarily at a funeral, or fall to sleep quietly in church, or solicitously inquire where So-and-so is nowadays when the poor chap has been dead six months? Sure you have. Everybody does it. We're all just a bit mentally cross eyed sometimes, and we don't look where it seems that we are looking. What we really need to look out for is not doing queer things too often. If we do there's no telling what may happen to us. We may get into the papers! —Springfield Union.

HOW TO CRACK NUTS FOR FUDGE AND CAKE

Almost all housewives know how very hard it is to crack pecan nuts. Pour boiling water over the nuts and allow them to stand tightly covered for five or six hours. The nut meats may then be extracted easily without a trace of the bitter lining of the nut. Use nut crackers and crack lightly all around the nuts. The work is quickly done and is not at all like the old tedious process of picking out the meats from the dry nuts. The meats nearly always come out whole.

TO REMOVE IRON RUST

Buy five cents' worth of oxalic acid crystals (poison), put into a bottle, fill up with water and shake. On a sunny day take clothes with iron rust on outdoors, wet with oxalic solution and hold in sun until stain disappears. If it does not go quickly wet again and rub between hands. Then be very sure to rinse thoroughly or the acid will eat the cloth.

HOMEMADE FERTILIZER

A splendid fertilizer for all pot plants and evergreens may be made in this way: Dissolve one can of lye in two gallons of water, and put in enough bones to make a thick, crumbly mass. A few spoonfuls of this in your watering pot once a week will give a wonderful growth and brightness to all foliage plants.

A good deal has been said about weeds and all will agree that they are most undesirable. No one cares to grow them in crops and yet they grow, and that luxuriantly, if unrestrained. Keeping ahead of the weeds requires perseverance and a correct knowledge of the best way to keep them down.

BLAME IT ON THE TIRE

He didn't pump it full enough,
though all the air is free;
He left it soft and spongy like, and scooted on with glee;
He skidded and he gridded and whooped through dust and mire,
And when it burst
He cursed and cursed,
And blamed it on the tire.

He drove it on the street car tracks
with confidence superb;
He scraped it on the lamp posts and he scraped it on the curb;
He slammed it and he jammed it any way he might desire,
And when it popped,
Right out he hopped,
And blamed it on the tire.

He cut it on some broken glass, but said that didn't hurt;
He kept right on through sand and mud and filled the cut with dirt.
It spotted there and rotted there and soon he howled in ire,
When up it blew
He blew up too,
And blamed it on the tire.

He put on chains that ground and chewed and gouged into the tread;
He knew his wheels were out of line
"But what of that?" he said.
He whizzed along and sizzed along,
he picked up nails and wire,
And when it banged
His fists he whanged,
And blamed it on the tire.

Who is this man? Go ask the boys who meet him every day.
Go ask the boys who have to hear the things he has to say.
He bores in and he roars in with words of angry fire.
Though he's to blame,
It's all the same—
He blames it on the tire.

EASILY CHANGED

"Is your portable garage satisfactory?"

"Oh, yes," replied the suburban dweller; "it suits me very well and I'm glad for my wife's sake that I bought the portable kind."

"Why so?"

"She's had it moved half a dozen times because she didn't think it looked well from the street."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

QUICK DEVELOPMENT OF AUTO MARKET

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Warning to American automobile manufacturers to enter the world market before the American market becomes "saturated," was voiced by Dr Edward Ewing Pratt, Chief of the U. S. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce to-day.

"If the production of automobiles continues its present rate of increase," Dr. Pratt warns, "and unless vital changes are effected, either in the consuming public or in the price of automobiles, this 'saturation point may not be far off. For the commercial vehicle, however, development has probably only begun in this country."

American automobiles would have no difficulty in overcoming competition abroad, except possibly in the higher priced cars—above $1200—Pratt declares. European manufacturers, he said, are not equipped to turn out cars on the extensive and highly efficient basis in effect in the United States.

A MUMMY'S DOLL

Among the ancient objects exhibited in the British museum is a doll more than 3000 years old. When some archaeologists were exploring an ancient Egyptian royal tomb they came upon a sarcophagus containing the mummy of a little princess seven years old. She was dressed and interred in a manner befitting her rank, and in her arms was found a little wooden doll.

The inscription gave the name, rank and age of the little girl and the date of her death, but it said nothing about the quaint little wooden Egyptian doll. This, however, told its own story. It was so tightly clasped in the arms of the mummy that it was evident that the child had died with her beloved doll in her arms.

POWERFUL PLEA

It is told of Rufus Choate that on one occasion he appeared in court to defend a blacksmith whose ironwork had been seized by a creditor.

So powerfully did the great advocate depict the wrong which he contended had been done to his client and so graphic was his description of the extent to which the forge had been stripped that the blacksmith, who sat near by, suddenly burst into tears.

"Why, Tom," said a sympathetic friend, "what's the matter with you? What are you crying about?"

"Oh, dear me," replied the blacksmith between his sobs, "I had no idea I had been so abominably t-t-treated."—New York Telegraph.

MAYBE IT WAS A FOLDING ONE

Pilfering had been going on among the men in an engineering works. The master spoke to the foreman, who was an Irishman, in respect to the same, telling him if he had any suspicions to search the men before leaving.

One evening Pat had occasion to do this, and while in the act of telling the men to take their coats off the master came by.

"Well, Pat, what is missing now?"

"A wheelbarrow, sir."

HINTS FOR HUSBANDS

"They will always get along well together."

"You think so?"

"I'm sure of it. Whenever she does anything wrong he asks her forgiveness."—Baltimore Sun.

Man is made of dust; along comes the watering cart of fate and his name is mud.

Facts and Comment

"It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and the word yesterday of a severe frost which was reported to have damaged the Georgia peach crop to as high as 90 per cent in some sections is but a further assurance of top-notch prices for local peach men, says the Ontario Report. The crops of many local Ontario growers have already been contracted for and prices already run as high as $30 per ton. What still is more to the point the coming crop promises to be bountiful as well as high priced.

A committee appointed by the Alhambra Business Men's Association to select such holidays as the business men shall observe during the year, in their report recommended that the following days be observed and that business houses of Alhambra be closed on such holidays: New Year's, Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas A paper is being circulated among the merchants asking them to sign this recommendation. The association is also taking up the question of closing evenings at a uniform time.

Stanford university is sending two of its most noted scholars to lecture at the summer session of the University of Southern California. They are Dr. Raymond Macdonald Alden, professor of English, and Dr. Edward Benjamin Krehbiel, professor of history. Dr. Alden will give special courses on "Literature of the Revolutionary and Romantic Movements" and "Tragedy in Various Literatures." Prof. Krehbiel is a noted peace advocate and authority on the history of western America. The session begins July 2 and ends August 11.

While the lemon market in the eastern cities has not been as strong during the past week as in former weeks, yet it is the finest market for this particular period of the year in a long series of years—if ever, says the Whittier News. The average for this week has been $2.90 a box in New York and Boston and in Philadelphia it has been better. That is an average of $1.20 better than a year ago and $2 better than two years ago. The average for lemons in the Chicago market during the month of February in the past ten years has been $1.55 a box. This past February the average has been $3.25 a box.

BLACKMORE'S MANNERS

Blackmore is said to have resembled Horace Greeley. Several inches over six feet, with a large, beautifully shaped head, on which his hair tossed wavingly, he wore a beard shaved away from the upper lip and chin, so that it framed his face, which was as rosy as a girl's. His eyes were full of twinkling humor and kindliness, and there was always about him a sense of the outdoors—of great, calm spaces, winds and fragrances. He dressed carelessly in loose fitting clothes, taking no trouble to keep in the fashion. His voice was low and musical and his manners had a touch of the old world courtesy and distinction. He was utterly sincere and would never pretend to agree to anything because some one else advocated it. His opinions were strong and clear, and he stood by them unwaveringly. —Hildegarde Hawthorne in St. Nicholas.

A SORDID VIEW

"Do you know that our bookkeeper is short in his accounts?"

"Yes, a few hundred bones. Consequently he works every night and never wants a vacation. Let him alone. We're ahead of the game, all right."—Pittsburg Post.
